LOCATION: This family burial ground is located in the SE/4 of the NW/4 of Section 28, T7S-R8W on the west side of Pine Hills Drive in eastern Ocean Springs.

DIRECTIONS: From the intersection of Washington Avenue and Bienville Boulevard (US 90) go south on Washington Avenue .17 miles to Government Street. At Government turn left (east) and go 2.2 miles to Pine Hills Drive. Turn right (south) into Pine Hills and proceed .2 miles to Shady Oaks Lane, a private drive. At Shady Oaks go right (west) to the end of the drive. The Babendrier gravesite is to the south.

HISTORY: The Babendrier Cemetery is named for Dr. Charles Albert Irving Babendrier (1867-1938) called Albert, and his wife, Dr. Estelle Turner (1871-1958). Albert Babendrier was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 13, 1867 of German parentage while Estelle was a native of Mobile, Alabama. She was born July 28, 1871. Her father was a native of North Carolina, and her mother was a French speaking Swiss national. Estelle Babendrier attended Plute Medical College probably located at Kentucky. She graduated in March 1896, after completing four courses in allopathic medicine. Her experience as a physician was with Dr. J.E. Million of Kentucky where she practiced for thirteen years.

The Babendriers may have arrived at Ocean Springs in late 1906. They probably came here from Kentucky where their two children, Eleanor Sophia (1900-1986) and Eric Turner (1902-1975) were born. It is generally believed that they came here retired from their respective medical practices. Estelle did develop her medicinal skills later at Ocean Springs after being granted a license to practice medicine in Jackson County on July 18, 1922.

On January 3, 1907, Albert Babendrier purchased thirty acres of land in the SE/4 of the NW/4 of Section 28, T7S-R8W from Mayor F.M. Weed (1852-1917) and merchant, Elias S. Davis (1859-1925), for $840. This tract was described as: thirty acres of land south of and adjoining the land now owned by A.B. Ackander in subdivision of the SE/4 of the NW/4 in Section 28, T7S-R8W. Commencing at the SE/C of the said Ackander's land, thence south along the subdivision section line 990 feet, thence west along said section line 1320 feet to the corner, thence north along said subdivision line 990 feet, thence east along the south line of the said Ackander's land 1320 feet to the place of beginning. Meaning to convey all of the land in the SE/4 of the NW/4 of said Section 28, T7S-R8W except 10 acres previously sold to and now owned and occupied by the above mentioned Ackander*.

*A.B. Ackander (1858-1926) immigrated to the United States from Sweden in 1891, settling at Chicago. His wife, Annie Nilsson (1874), was also Swedish. They bought 18.5 acres north of the Babendriers from Weed & Davis in March 1903. Here they grew citrus and pecan crops on their estate called "Ockess". Ackander's sister-in-law, Agnes Nillson, bought 25 acres to the west from Weed & Davis in 1904.(JXCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk. 26, pp. 187-188)

After building a unique, 3000 square-foot, concrete home in the northeast corner of his estate and planting pecan and citrus trees, Albert Babendrier came out of retirement at the age of fifty three. He entered the machine and foundry business at Biloxi in 1920. Babendrier was President of the Biloxi Machine Works & Foundry Company. They were located on the northeast corner of Railroad Street and Magnolia. The company manufactured the Gulf Standard Gasoline Marine engine, gray iron, and made brass and aluminum castings. Louis Braun served as Vice President and J.R. McElroy was the treasurer of the organization.

When Dr. Albert Babendrier died on June 19, 1938, he was buried in a mausoleum like structure located southwest of his home. This feature may have been used originally as a cyclone cellar. Paul bearers at Dr. Babendrier's funeral were: W.G. Wilkes, E.C. Tonsmeire, Willie Dale, W.A. Vierling, F.B.

Royster, and Dr. Lindstrom.

Dr. Estelle Turner Babendrier lived until March 12, 1958. She was a member of the Gulf Coast Medical Society and American Medical Association. She specialized in skin disorders and allergies. Her treatment of patients at Ocean Springs is legendary as it is generally believed she prepared her own formulae from herbs and plants grown in her garden. Octogenarian, George E. Arndt, remembers Dr. Babendrier giving him some "little pink pills" for a respiratory ailment. He believes some of her medicine was manufactured by a pharmaceutical house at St. Louis.

Many other people at Ocean Springs can relate to having been treated for poison ivy and sumac by Dr. Babendrier. Her treatments for these irritating skin ailments were oral liquids, salves, and lotions. It appears the good lady doctor took her apothecarial secrets to the grave.

The children of the Babendreers both left Ocean Springs for other areas. Daughter, Eleanor, taught Sunday School at St. Johns Episcopal Church. It is believed she got a law degree, and later married Walter D. Moore, an accountant, from Florence, Alabama.

Eric Turner Babendreer became an attorney and may have practiced law at Ocean Springs until the late 1920s. He and his mother may have had offices in the Farmers and Merchants Bank Building on Washington Avenue. Eric moved to Memphis, Tennessee where he died on December 1, 1975.

Estelle Turner Babendrier left the thirty-acre estate to her children as described in Cause No. 14280 in the Chancery Court of Jackson County, Mississippi (Jackson County Will Book 6, pp. 202-204, February 2, 1957).

Evidently there was some disagreement or confusion as to asset distribution as Eleanor B. Moore had to bring litigation against her brother, Eric T. Babendreer. The Chancery Court judge ruled in September 1960 that Eric Babendreer would receive the west half of the estate, and Eleanor B. Moore the east half (JXCO, Ms. Chancery Court Cause No. 15512 and JXCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk. 201, p. 574).

Eleanor B. Moore began selling off her fifteen acres in November 1960, when she sold 1.57 acres to Ed Barq Jr. The Babendrier House was sold to John W. Adams on August 8, 1966 (Jackson County Deed book 296, p. 212). Other purchasers of Eleanor B. Moore's land were: J.H. McFarland (1963), A.C. Cuicchi (1972), C.B. Ishee (1972), and Thomas B. Roberts (1984). (JXCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk. 203, p. 403 and JXCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk. 296, p. 212)

Eric Turner sold his fourteen acres to Nelson and Charles Freeburg in April 1964. Nelson conveyed the tract to the Ocean Springs Municipal Separate School District in September 1966. The Pecan Park Elementary School on Hanley Road was built on this acreage in 1967. (JXCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk. 255, p. 371 and JXCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk. 298, p. 348)

When Eleanor B. Moore sold the house to John W. Adams and Myrtle D. Adams (1966) the following reservation was made concerning the gravesite of her parents: Reserving and retaining however, for and on behalf of myself and my brother, Eric Barbendreer, the right of ingress and egress to and from the grave site of our father and mother, it being distinctly understood that the grantees shall keep and maintain said grave site so long as they are in possession of the above described land. (Jackson County, Ms. Land Deed Book 296, p. 212)

In June 1984, Eleanor B. Moore, a resident of Florence, Lauderdale County, Alabama released Thomas B. Roberts and Hollis M. Roberts who had acquired the Babendrier gravesite from the obligation to maintain her parents graves. This instrument was recorded in Jackson County, Ms. Land Deed Book 800, p. 76, and appears as follows:

Now therefore in consideration of the Roberts accepting the hereinafter set forth condition, which they do by acceptance of this instrument, the said Eleanor B. Moore does hereby annul, alter and change the obligation above described so that the said

Roberts and their successors in title to the parcel on which her Mother and Fathers graves are situated and designated on Exhibit A as Grave Site Lot shall only be under the duty and obligation of removing debris, caused if and when the crypt over said graves shall deteriorate to such extent as to cave in, crumble or collapse, then filling the graves to make them even with the surface of the surrounding ground and setting up the present markers, but the said Roberts and their successors in title shall be under no other or further obligation or duty with reference to said grave sites.

Tomb

The Babendrier tomb is located on a gravesite lot approximately 123 feet by 40 feet. It rests on the extreme north end of the lot near the road. According to Bette Bradford Milsted, the Babendrier tomb was built during the depression years by her father, Fred Bradford (1878-1951). Mr. Bradford was a master mason and builder at Ocean Springs. His skills were incorporated in such structures as John B. Honor's "Many Oaks" (1918), the First Baptist Church (1909), and Dr. J.J. Bland's New Beach Hotel (1909).

The Babendrier's tomb is enclosed by a 16 foot by 20 foot cement coping which is 4 inches tall and 6 inches wide. The cement semi-mausoleum which is 9 feet long, 6 feet wide, and 3.75 feet tall was originally constructed to house six bodies. The glass covered, vacuum sealed caskets of the two doctors are resting in this underground vault. Entrance to the subterranean portion of the tomb is sheltered by an approximately 5 foot by 6 foot cement slab which has recently been cemented shut. Two small marble tombstones (2 feet x 1.25 feet), which mark the graves of the Babendriers are located north and south of the tomb.

Harriett Clough Hale

In addition to the Babendriers another grave is located on the site. On February 25, 1955, Harriett Clough Hale (1887-1955), a native of Maine was buried just outside of the cement coping four feet to the north. Her grave is marked by a small metal marker. Mrs. Hale came to Ocean Springs circa 1941. She lived on the property and served as Estelle Babendrier's nurse when she became feeble in her later years. Mrs. Hale also operated a branch of the Biloxi Laundry on Washington Avenue in the early 1950s.

In addition several families in the neighborhood have interred their household pets in the cemetery. The graves of these animals are distinguished with wooden markers.

The Babendriers or Babendreers

In March 1936, Willy Dale formed another local corporation, Dale Inc., to manufacture, sell, and build oil dispensing devices. His partners were Dr. Albert Babendrier and spouse, Dr. Estelle Turner Babendrier (1871-1958). Capital stock for the new company was $26,000. (The Jackson County Times, March 28, 1936)

Dr. Charles Albert Irving Babendrier (1867-1938) called Albert, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 13, 1867 of German parentage while Estelle Turner Babendreir was a native of Mobile, Alabama. She was born July 28, 1871. Her father was a native of North Carolina, and her mother was a French speaking Swiss national. Estelle Babendrier attended Plute Medical College probably located at Kentucky. She graduated in March 1896, after completing four courses in allopathic medicine. Her experience as a physician was with Dr. J.E. Million of Kentucky where she practiced for thirteen years. (JXCO, Ms. Physician's License Bk. 2, p. 199)

The Babendriers may have arrived at Ocean Springs in late 1906. They probably came here from Kentucky where their two children, Eleanor Sophia Babendrier Moore (1900-1986) and Eric Turner Babendrier (1902-1975) were born. Both Babendrier children practiced law. Eleanor was the first woman attorney at Ocean Springs and possible in South Mississippi. She was admitted to the bar in August 1922 with Judge D.M. Graham administering the oath at Pascagoula. (The Jackson County Times, August 12, 1922, p. 1)

It is generally believed that the Babendriers chose Ocean Springs to retire from their respective medical practices. Later Estelle did develop her medicinal skills at Ocean Springs after being granted a license to practice medicine in Jackson County on July 18, 1922. (JXCO, Ms. Physician's License Bk. 2, p. 199)

On January 3, 1907, Albert Babendrier purchased thirty acres of land in the SE/4 of the NW/4 of Section 28, T7S-R8W from Mayor F.M. Weed (1852-1917) and merchant, Elias S. After building a unique, 3000 square-foot, concrete home at present day 601 Pine Hills Road in the northeast corner of his estate, the Babendriers planted pecans and citrus trees. (JXCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk. 32, pp. 143-144)

Circa 1916, Albert Babendrier came out of semi-retirement to become an entrepreneur. By May 1917, he and E.S. Davis were active in cereal making with their Whole Grain Wheat Company at Monence,

DR. CHARLES ALBERT BABENDREER

Dr. Charles Albert Babendreer (1867-1938), called Albert, was a physician who retired to Ocean Springs circa 1909. He probably came here from Kentucky with his wife, Dr. Estelle Turner Babendreer (1871-1958), and children Eleanor B. Moore (1901-1984+) and Eric T. Babendreer (1903-1975).

Dr. Estelle Babendreer (sometimes spelled Babendrier) attended Plute Medical College and practiced medicine at Kentucky. At Ocean Springs, she specialized in skin disorders and allergies. Dr. Babendreer's clinic was in her home, "Pinewood", at present day 601 Pine Hills Road. They acquired thirty acres in this area in January 1907, from F.M. Weed (1850-1926) and E.S. Davis (1859-1925).

The Babendrier children became attorneys. They practiced at Ocean Springs commencing in 1929. At the time, Eleanor Babendreer, was one of few women in this field in the state. Both children left Mississippi. Eleanor married Walter D. Moore of Florence, Alabama, and Eric went to Memphis, Tennessee.

Although long retired from the practice of medicine, Dr. Albert Babendreer continued his life in an entrepreneurial role. In 1917, at the age of fifty, Dr. Albert Babendreer was involved as the proprietor of the Whole Grain Wheat Company at Momence, Illinois. It was a cereal manufacturing plant. Elias S. Davis, the owner of E.S. Davis & Sons, a local mercantile business, was a director of the company.

In October 1919, Albert Babendreer entered the seafood industry at Biloxi. He purchased the Biloxi Canning Company, which was located at Reynoir Street and the Back Bay of Biloxi for $4000. At the time, Babendreer was president of Maritime Food Products Company, an Illinois corporation.(HARCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk.125, p. 73)

Growing up in Baltimore, Maryland on the shores of Chesapeake Bay, Dr. Babendreer was surely influenced by the thriving seafood industry there. It was from Baltimore that Biloxi businessmen, operating as The Lopez, Elmer & Company, bought the equipment and learned the technology to open the first cannery there in 1881. Baltimore also provided Biloxi with a transient labor force. These seafood workers were called Bohemians, although primarily of Polish origin. Circa 1884, Lopez, Elmer & Company became the Biloxi Canning Company.

In 1920, Dr. Babendreer entered into an enterprise, the machine and foundry business, which was complimentary to his cannery. The business, called The Biloxi Machine Works & Foundry Company, was also located at Biloxi on the northeast corner of Railroad Street and Magnolia. The company manufactured the Gulf Standard Gasoline engine, gray iron, and made brass and aluminum castings. Louis Braun served as vice president and J.R. McElroy was the treasurer of the organization.

In May 1924, Dr. Babendreer sold the Biloxi Canning Company to Bernard Taltavull (1882-1948) for $10,000.(HARCO, Ms. Land Deed Bk.142, p. 129)

Illinois. Albert Babendrier acquired the Biloxi Canning Company in October 1919 for $4000. Willie C. Rose Humphreys (1877-1921+), the wife of John Brown Humphrey (1861-1921), was the vendor of this seafood factory, which is now the site of the Imperial Palace Casino on Bay View Avenue in Biloxi. The organization manufactured the Gulf Standard Gasoline engine, gray iron, and made brass and aluminum fittings. Louis Braun served as vice president and J.R. ESTELLE BABENDREER: 1871-1958)

Dr. Estelle Babendreer was born Estelle Turner at Mobile, Alabama on July 28, 1871. Her father was a native of North Carolina while her mother was a French speaking Swiss national. Estelle Babendreer attended Plute Medical College, which may have been in Kentucky. She graduated in March 1896, after completing four courses in allopathic medicine. Her experience as a physician was with Dr. J.E. Million of Kentucky. She practiced in the Blue Grass State for thirteen years.

Estelle Babendreer was married to another physician, Charles Albert Irving Babendreer (1867-1938). Albert Babendreer was a native of Baltimore, Maryland. They had two children: Eleanor Sophia Moore (1901-1984+) and Eric Babendreer (1903-1975). The children were born at Kentucky.

The Babendreer family is believed to have come to Ocean Springs in late 1906. They had retired from their respective medical practices. In January 1907, the Babendriers bought thirty acres of land in east Ocean Springs. Here they built a large home on Pine Hills Road (now John F. Vallor at 601 Pine Hills Road).

In July 1922, Estelle Babendreer reentered the medical field when she was granted her license to practice medicine at Jackson County. She gained a reputation as a healer of skin disorders and allergies. Dr. Babendreer was reputed to prepare her own medicines from plants and herbs grown locally. Many people at Ocean Springs, were treated for poison ivy and sumac by Estelle Babendreer utilizing oral liquids, salves, and lotions.

The Babendrees are buried on their property in a unique tomb. It may have been built by Fred Bradford originally as a storm shelter for the good doctors, but when Albert Babendreer died in 1938, he was buried here. Estelle Babendreer passed on in March 1958.

Chapter XX

THE BAR

Along with other noteworthy features, Jackson County is justly proud of her legal talent - its attorneys ranking high in all stations of the profession. This county has the distinction of sending some notable men to Congress. State, district, county, and minor offices have been filled with capable men of the local bar - officers who placed honor above emoluments or perquisites - men who are beloved, and who have and will go down in history as illuminators. Even the female sex has added glamour to the bar of Jackson County, as will be gleaned from the following sketches.

MISS ELEANOR BABENDREER, born 1900 and admitted to the bar 1922, comes from a brilliant family. Both of her parents are practicing physicians, and most of her education was received in her home. She did some work at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tennessee, and her only brother, is a practicing attorney in Memphis.

HORACE BLOOMFIELD, now engaged in active and lucrative practice, is a member of the Mississippi Bar Association, which he helped organize during the legislative session of 1906. He was elected state senator from the first district - comprising the counties of Hancock, Harrison, and Jackson - which office he held from 1890 to 1894. He was elected to the same position in November, 1903, and was a member of the judiciary, railroad, and franchises, as well as other important committees. Mr. Bloomfield was elected as floater Representative for the counties of Jackson and Harrison in 1911. (1)

ROBERT L. BULLARD, born November 17, 1869, in Conehatta, Newton County, was admitted to the bar in 1892 at Hattiesburg, and established himself at Scranton, the judicial center of Jackson County, where he was located for seven years, until the outbreak of the Spanish-American War, when he enlisted in the United States Fifth Volunteers, with which regiment he went to Cuba, remaining nine months. Upon his return from Cuba, he located in Forrest County, and resumed his law practice; he was appointed Circuit Judge of the Thirteenth Judicial District in 1904, serving until 1908. (2)
